

Are we rich enough to waste for long?

Challenges of renewing the Hungarian housing stock

Professional event of the Hungarian Energy Efficiency Institute

The conference is supported by the Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands

February 6, 2017 Budapest

8.30	Registration, refreshments
9:00 – 9:20	Welcome René van Hell, Ambassador, Kingdom of the Netherlands Gabriella Szalai, director, Hungarian Energy Efficiency Institute
	The Hungarian housing stock from an energy point of view – situation analysis
9:20 – 9:40	What is the physical state of Hungarian housing stock? Government plans to renew large numbers of buildings, or how to revitalize panel buildings? Zsolt Füleky, Deputy State Secretary, Prime Minister's Office
9:40 – 10:00	Do only financial support schemes keep the residential construction market going or can the industry's boom be made sustainable? Presenter t.b.c
10:00 – 10:20	Challenges of the 7/2006. TNM regulation: how does the regulation help or hinder energy efficiency investments? Krisztina Severnyák, Budapest University of Technology and Economics
10:20 – 10:40	How much emphasis is given to the energy classification of buildings in the real estate market, or whether energy efficiency becomes important only after moving in? Presenter t.b.c
10:40 – 11:00	Questions and answers
11:00 – 11:20	Coffee break

Thoughtful building design, innovative solutions

- 11:20 – 11:40 Domestic successes and lessons: Why is it worth it for a local government, as an investor, to develop passive buildings, whether rented or public?
Dr. Lívía Palatka, director, XIII. Kerületi Közszolgáltató Zrt.
- 11:40 – 12:30 Large-scale renovation of buildings: the 'Energiesprong' project. Energy refurbishment, innovative preparation and financing model of social housing.
Ron van Erck, Head of International Market Development, 'Energiesprong'
- 12:30 – 13:00 Questions and answers
- 13:00 – 14:00 Lunch, Networking
- ## European financing models for the implementation of residential projects
- 14:00 – 14:30 What makes an energy efficiency project interesting and supportable from financial point of view
Alain Nadeau, Head of European Investment Bank Office
- 14:30 – 15:00 Successful alternative financing examples from Hungary
Presenter t.b.c
- 15:00 – 15:30 Questions and answers
- 15:30 End of conference